SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: COPPA Rule, 16 CFR Part 312

OMB Control Number: 3084-0117

Type of Review: Extension of currently approved collection

Abstract: On September 25, 2015, the FTC sought public comment on the information collection requirements associated with subpart N. 80 FR 57818 (“September 25, 2015 Federal Register Notice”). No relevant comments were received. Pursuant to the OMB regulations, 5 CFR Part 1320, that implement the PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., the FTC is providing a second opportunity for public comment while seeking OMB approval to renew the pre-existing clearance for the Rule.

The COPPA Rule, 16 CFR Part 312, requires commercial websites to provide notice and obtain parents’ consent before collecting, using, and/or disclosing personal information from children under age 13, with limited exceptions. The COPPA Rule contains certain statutorily-required notice requirements that apply to operators of any website or online service directed to children, and operators of any website or online service with actual knowledge of collecting personal information from children. Covered operators must: provide online notice and direct notice to parents of how they collect, use, and disclose children’s personal information; obtain the prior consent of the child’s parent in order to engage in such collection, use, and disclosure, with limited exceptions; provide reasonable means for the parent to obtain access to the information and to direct its deletion; and, establish procedures that protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of personal information collected from children.
